The patronage was large and the affair was, in effect, a pleasant social, with the additional advantage of creating a handsome and much needed revenue. Manager Al. Hager of the Star Theatre and his entire force of artists, contributed, Messrs. J. Austin Readley, singer; Albini, magician; Miss Gracie Wolfe, song and dance; Hughes and Burns, dance Markley and Cruz, banjoists, and Miss Fay Dellinger as pianist of the evening. The treat was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody and was very unique in its way.

GOOD GAME OF FOOTBALL

Commercials Will Meet the West Astorians This Afternoon.

This afternoon at the A. F. C. park, the strong Commercial club football team will make its first appearance on the home grounds. Commercial, this season, is stronger than ever before, being both heavy and fast, a combination in a football team that is hard to beat.

The system or rather style of play used by the Commercial is what is known as the open as opposed to the mass play, making the game of more spectacular interest to spectators, as well as doing away to a large extent, with the chances of injury.

The Commercial team has proven itself to be the equal, and in many respects the superior, of the big teams in the state, demonstrating this beyond a doubt when they held Multnomah to a tie on the Portland grounds.

There are but few people that do not enjoy good, clean, legitimate sport, and when they see Commercial play they see as good a game as people in the East pay from $2 to $10 for the privilege of witnessing.

Today's game will be with the West Astoria team, who are confident that they can hold Commercial down to at least a low score. Commercial will present the same formidable line that for two years has been a stone wall to all opponents, Bays, Gammal, Goddard and Sutton and Minard. Blair will be back at fullback and with Higginbotham and Painter halves and Captain Graham at quarter, will make as heavy and speedy a backfield as can be found in the Northwest, Tully and Mathena will be at the ends, both being fast and sure
